THERE'S A DIFFERENCE—Mrs. Charles P. Cabell, wife of Lt. Gen. Cabell, is famous for her Texas-Mexican dinners which she says are not the same as Mexican dinners. At the party she gave last night for Secretary of the Air Force and Mrs. Donald Quarles and Air Force Chief of Staff and Mrs. Nathan Twining, Mrs. Cabell served Enchiladas (which she is taking out of the oven), Chili Con Carne, Arroz Mejicana, Frijoles, Tortillas, Pina, Dulce and Salsa.

Cabells Go Indoors and Out

By Winzola McLendon

"THIS IS the first time the weatherman has ever done this to me!" Mrs. Charles P. Cabell cried last evening as she moved her "garden party" indoors.

Lt. Gen. and Mrs. Cabell—he is the Deputy Director of Central Intelligence—had the garden of their Bolling Air Force Base quarters gaily decorated and tables of four set up for a Texas-Mexican dinner. Then, just 30 minutes before the first guest was due to arrive, the rains came.

Tables were hastily set up inside, large bowls of Guacamole and fritos strategically located near the Cerveza (that's Mexican for beer), and Ferdinand—a shocking pink Toro, with sequined eyelashes and pearl draped horns—placed in the entrance hall.

What happened then? Why, the sun came out, of course. And, the party was moved back into the lovely rose bordered garden with its gorge-

THE CABELLS—both former Texans—who are famous for their Texas-Mexican dinners gave last night's party for Secretary of the Air Force and Mrs. Donald Quarles and Air Force Chief of Staff and Mrs. Nathan Twining. Maj. Gen. and Mrs. James Briggs—they leave Monday for Colorado Springs where the General will be Superintendent of the Air Force Academy—were there.

Assistant Secretary of the Air Force Lyle Garlock, Lt. Gen. Joseph Smith (he heads MATS) and Lt. Gen. Emmett O'Donnell Jr., were a threesome; Roy St. Lewis arrived with Texans Col. and Mrs. Harold ("Dry Hole") Byrd.
